Lewis Robinson of the Arkansas Public Service Commission late this week personally ordered representatives of the Palmer newspapers not to enr the Commission's offices except when it was certain that PSC officials or employes were present. He complained "some files" had "disappeared" - pressed to identity them he said they were "some private files." Also, Chairman said he was unaware that anyone now or previously connected with the PSC, excepting Stewart K. Prosser, was an Ark-La stockholder during the period of the rise in dividends and in market price on the heels of the PSC's approval of
